§2.

Types of Cookies used

1. Cookies used by the Administrator are safe for User's Device. In particular by this means it is not possible for bugs or any unwanted software or malicious software to get into User's Devices. These files enable to identify software used by the User and to adjust the Website to each User individually. The Cookies usually contain name of a domain from which they originated, period of their storage on the Device and value ascribed.
2. The Administrator uses two types of Cookie files:
  - a) session Cookies: are stored on User's Device and remain there until the end of a session of given browser. Information saved is then permanently erased from Device's memory. Session Cookies mechanism does not allow to download any personal data or confidential information from User's Device.
  - b) persistent Cookies: are stored on User's Device and remain there until the moment of their deletion. Ending of a session of given browser or shutting down the Device do not result in deletion of Cookies from User's Device. Persistent Cookies mechanism does not allow to download any personal data or confidential information from User's Device.

3. The User may limit or disable access of Cookie files to his Device. In case of using this option browsing of the Website will be possible but except for the functions that by their very nature require Cookie files.

§3.

Purposes for which the Cookies are used

1. The Administrator uses Internal Cookies for the following purposes:
  - a) configuration of the Website – adjustment of the contents of the Website to the User’s preferences and optimization of Website use;
  - b) analyses and surveys and audience audit – collecting general and anonymous statistical data, creating anonymous statistics using analytical tools that help understand in what way Website’s Users browse the Website, which enable improvements of its structure and contents;
  - c) rendering advertising services – presenting advertising messages adjusted to User’s preferences;
2. The Administrator of the service uses Third Parties Cookies for the following purposes:
  - a) configuration of the Website - adjustment of the contents of the Website to the User’s preferences and optimization of Website use (administrator of the Cookies: IAI S.A. with its registered office in Szczecin);
